

Pre-Approved Applications for Membership

Country	Organization	Main activities	Why joining PICUM	Member Referee
Albania	ARSIS (Nisma per Ndryshim Shoqeror)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Direct services to minors and families • Education • Economic Empowerment • Support with reintegration services for victims of trafficking • Health care • Strengthen the links between juvenile justice system and the child protection system • Case management • Outreach interventions • Emergency Responses • Capacity building to state stakeholders at central and local level that support children, youth and women • Advocacy and lobbying activities 	Knowledge, tools, participation and exchange are necessary to be gained in order to bring the change in the protection system of the local and migrant minors in the country. Many lessons are learned through the participation and exchanges.	ARSIS Greece
Austria	AKIS	AKIS is integration center for all Afghan migrants and we have integration courses and advisory workshops as well as we focus in empowering the Afghan women and create the opportunities for women.	AKIS will appreciate in working together with PICUM as far as these both organizations have same interests and same values. The only aim that we have is helping migrants and in working together we could do more and will achieve our aims faster.	Afghan Association in Sweden

Annex 5_Applications for Membership

Country	Organization	Main activities	Why joining PICUM	Member Referee
Belgium	ADC Memorial	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal work on opposing detention of migrants in centers for deportation in Russia • Advocating for protection of social, economic and cultural rights of migrants in post-Soviet countries • Protection of vulnerable groups of children rights (migrants, minorities) - campaign against police involvement in repatriation process of migrant children 	To meet colleagues from other organizations, to join the efforts and to exchange experience in protecting working migrants, especially children	Michele Levoy from PICUM Annemarie Gielen from Pax Christi
Belgium	Atlas	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal advice, formation, networking on migration law • Networking, advice, help and expertise on access to health care • Training and networking on undocumented migrants 	More expertise and information available for members, better understanding and legal advice, helping to see issues in a broader international context and learn how other cities and countries deal with the issues PICUM works on.	Orbit Bond Zonder Naam Protestants Sociaal Centrum
Cyprus	Cyprus Refugee Council	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advocacy – establishment and implementation of positive legislation and practices • Case management – Inter-disciplinary approach by providing individualized examination to ensure access to rights and interactions • Community work and capacity building, public awareness and research 	We would like to get expertise, data, evidence and reports that are used in other countries in an attempt to protect the rights of undocumented migrants. Through the network also would like to meet colleagues from other countries who are working on protecting human rights.	Non-Member: ATD Network ECRE International Detention Coalition

Annex 5_Applications for Membership

Country	Organization	Main activities	Why joining PICUM	Member Referee
Finland	TAMPEP	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Collect and maintain updated information on the political and legal situation in European countries • Support local and national advocacy • Participate in European-level events on sex workers 	TAMPEP has over 24 years of experience leading European Union program in the field of sex work and migration and is still very well connected to the European sex worker movement, civil society organisations, and European and various United Nations agencies – UNAIDS, UNDP, UNFPA despite a period of lack of funding. This period of insecure funding has led to a shift in our activities away from direct service provision to advocacy and campaigning and working to support members to deliver direct services to migrant and mobile sex workers. The TAMPEP network also plays a watchdog role in monitoring policies and program throughout Europe and disseminates relevant information throughout our network.	ICRSE - International Committee on Rights of Sex Workers La Strada International
France	Syndicat du Travail Sexuel (STRASS)	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Advocacy, public action & demonstrations, communication, self-help, legal service, self-defence & anti-violence courses, mutual health and social protection • We demand the regularization of all undocumented migrants as the best way to combat the exploitation of migrant sex workers in the sex industry. We accompany colleagues who are victims of trafficking in human beings in court, and we try to obtain regularization by informing and accompanying colleagues to obtain rights and protections in France. 	We need to build alliances with other movements for undocumented migrants who probably face similar difficulties in relation to existing constraints in the so-called informal economies.	ICRSE Médecins du Monde SWAI ScotPep

Annex 5_Applications for Membership

Country	Organization	Main activities	Why joining PICUM	Member Referee
Germany	Medinetz Ulm e.V.	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Anonymous support of people without papers to receive sufficient medical care by cooperation with partners such as clinics, hospitals, or independent physicians Political activities including conceptual work regarding an at least compensatory system for health care Public information to emphasize the necessity of our core mission and to gain structural or informative support 	Build connections to other NGOs and institutions with similar values and visions, entrain skills and gain knowledge about strategic expertise in politics, communication and legal issues to ensure health care access, receive support from PICUM's dedicated secretariat	Medinetz Würzburg e.V. Mediburö Kiel e.V.
Germany	Medinetz Koblenz e.V	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Our organization provides monthly consultation for people with health-related problems and no or insufficient health insurance 	To get access to an international network of organizations with expertise in the field of human rights of migrants. We hope to find support for upcoming questions but are motivated to help find solutions together.	Medinetz Mainz e.V. Medinetz Würzburg
Greece	Solidarity Now	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> Designs and implements programs that provide assistance and support to those most affected by the economic downturn and the humanitarian crisis Provide services free of charge including primary healthcare, medication, legal aid and counseling, job training and employment services and support programs for parents and children. Through our funding grants we design programs with other non-governmental organizations that respond to the essential social needs of the community 	We expect and want to enhance our knowledge and our network especially on matters that have to do with undocumented.	Non-Member: ECRE

Annex 5_Applications for Membership

Country	Organization	Main activities	Why joining PICUM	Member Referee
Greece	Human Rights360	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal Aid for victims of crime • Promote holistic, community-based approach in order to support both the population which their application for international protection has been accepted and rejected • Strategic communication • Interventions - Advocacy 	HumanRights360 strongly believes that being part of the inly international network working exclusively to uphold the rights of undocumented migrants shall enhance our team skills and expertise in the field and shall strengthen the exchange of practices with other members of the network while the tailored to our need’s events/trainings shall provide insights on key opportunities and challenges you face in your work. It is essential for us to explore opportunities for strategic discussion in order to engage decision makers and strategic allies in key regional and global forum on migration, including at EU, Council of Europe and UN level.	Non-Member: International Detention Coalition
Romania	SZEXE	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Legal Aid: advise and/or representation • Outreach work • Researches • Communications and Campaigning • Library on sex work, prostitution and human trafficking • Partnership building with Civil Society and Peer volunteer system 	Our organization expects to connect to and gain allies in supporting undocumented migrants sex workers’ rights, in order to engage decision makers and strategic allies at national, regional and European level. Also, we would like to build our skills and expertise on access to healthcare, justice, fair working conditions and undocumented migrant women.	Petra Wlecklik - IG Metall Non-Member: Marco Cilento – European Trade Union Confederation

Annex 5_Applications for Membership

Country	Organization	Main activities	Why joining PICUM	Member Referee
Spain	Asociación Rumiñahui	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Promote the full integration of the most disadvantaged • To promote, implement and guarantee equal opportunities and treatment of women and men as well as promoting knowledge about the prevention of gender violence • Support youth and children through the development of training activities school support • Promote family support by facilitating family reunification, mediation and counselling for dependent persons • To promote socio-professional insertion and employment in collaboration with public administrations, social agents and business 	The entity seeks to achieve synergies with the rest of the member entities of the network that allow us to improve the actions carried out by the entity, as well as being able to influence official bodies for an improvement in the employment, legal and social situation of migrants, as well as being able to work together at European level.	Por ti Mujer Red AMINVI CEPAIM
Spain	Mujeres Supervivientes	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Community dining room for immigrant women, their children, unemployed young girls • Direct attention to macho violence (accompaniment to denunciation, legal and psychological support, workshops on empowerment, personal space, human rights, etc.) • Ecological garden, to make our lives and our Community Canteen sustainable. Struggle and defense of the Human Rights of migrant women • Social theatre, feminist activism and networking with women's associations 	Recognition and strength to continue working in the Network on the Human Rights of Immigrants. Contribute to the Immigrants Political Agenda. Stop hate and xenophobic policies. To make visible the Human Rights and the Right to the free circulation of the immigrants. To achieve a human, generous and democratic response from the EU, to make visible the climate emergency and the care of life from ecofeminism. To make visible that immigrant women sustain European societies with our knowledge, work and cultural background, About the value of interculturality and the GOOD LIVING.	Por ti Mujer

Annex 5_Applications for Membership

Country	Organization	Main activities	Why joining PICUM	Member Referee
UK	Right to Remain	<ul style="list-style-type: none"> • Provide accessible information, support and resources that enable undocumented migrants to know their rights and overcome the procedural and socio-economic barriers to justice and social inclusion • We produce public legal education resources (notably the “Right to Remain Toolkit”, available online and as a printed book) so people can understand the asylum and immigration system and have the confidence to take the necessary steps in their legal case. We are a support hub for grassroots asylum and migrant groups across the UK, we deliver community training and we bring people together to share their expertise and learning. 	Learning from other European members about the challenges they are facing, their solutions to problems, and their successes. Finding out about the diversity of work being done by such a broad range of groups and organisations in different countries. Making sure that Right to Remain’s work (and our partners) is placed with a broader framework of thinking, discussion and action. Being better informed about the political and legal context in other European countries, particularly at a time when European collaboration may become more challenging, or de-prioritised in the UK.	Eiri Ohtani, Director of the Detention Forum